The Day of Pentecost is Sunday, June 4.

- We are encouraging people to wear red on that Sunday to brighten up the festivities

It's Story Time Again with Hazel: Come and hear some new stories that are not in either book. Come listen and enjoy. Saturday June 10 at 2:00 p.m. in the church. No tickets, but generous donations gratefully accepted!

Parish Announcements

We Are Grateful to Connie, our Honorary Associate, for Celebrating at the 10:30 service today. She plans to continue to assist the Priest-in-Charge for services on a monthly basis.

Spring has come with all its colour. The children's gardens on the south side of the church are in full colour from the children's fall plantings. The red cross of tulips is in full bloom as well. Please have a look at what a little work from the youngest of the church has done to brighten up this season.

Get Creative for SickKids: As her charity this year, Tattianna Pompey-Happi is collecting homemade "You are Special," "Hello," and "Words of inspiration" cards.
