Thank you for your financial support of St. George on Yonge.

Through your generosity in regular givings, we are able to fund the ongoing programmes in the parish, and your donations to the Rector's Discretionary Fund help us to help those in need, and build relationships in the community. Thanks be to God.

Our Pre-Authorised Remittance Programme (PAR) is available to help you support the ministry of our Church through a debit from your account on or about the 20th day of each month, and the amount will be credited to the parish bank account. You will receive a charitable receipt from the church as usual. This programme allows the church to meet its on-going commitments, even when parishioners are away. An informational brochure (which contains a registration form) is available from the Ushers. Please speak to Anne Baillie for more information.

We are looking for donations of hats, mitts, gloves, and scarves to give to the people involved with our gift card programme. Please bring these items in by December 1. Help to distribute them on December 4 would be appreciated. Speak to Doug Heyes if you are able to help.

Diocesan Synod November 9 – 10, 2018

Geraldine Sperling, Izunna Umezinne, and myself were the lay delegates for St. George on Yonge at Synod this year.

The theme of the Synod, “Growing in Christ,” was a continuation of the Diocese’s strategic plan that was introduced in 2016. The strategic plan is a five year vision for the Diocese. The goal of the strategic plan is to establish foundations/programmes for how all the parishes will work together to build healthy, missional Anglican communities that engage faithfully with the world and share the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Included on the Synod agenda for the two days were presentations from parishes and Diocesan leaders describing missional and outreach moments, some business matters pertaining to the operation of the Diocese of Toronto, and several smaller group sessions to further the discussions, reflections, and considerations about the proposed changes to the Marriage Canon to allow for same-sex marriage in our Church.

Here are a few of the highlights of this year’s Synod.

1. The Synod begun with a Eucharist Service being shared with approximately 400 people. Imagine the warmth and the wonderful sounds of all those Anglicans singing the hymns.
2. The inspiring missional presentations were about parishes trying new approaches to programmes and projects to meet people within their own communities. The projects included operating summer sports programme, organising an 850 km canoe pilgrimage from Midland to Montreal over 2 weeks, opening a food bank, and operating a youth drop-in centre one day a week.

3. The outreach presentations were given by PWRDF and the Archbishop’s Working Group on Intercultural Ministry.
4. The opportunity to engage in small group sessions of listening and contributing to discussions about the proposed changes to the Marriage Canon to permit same-sex marriages. The results of these sessions will be presented to the General Synod in July 2019 where a vote on the motion will occur. The acknowledgement that this subject has been on many agendas for a long period of time and perhaps there was a feeling of weariness and fear. Regardless of the decision at General Synod, there will be a mixture of reactions to the result of the vote. Nevertheless it was stressed that the overall need was for us to move forward in faith with compassion and empathy in boldness representing the diversity of all of us – the people of God.
5. Near the end of the Synod, the Archbishop Colin Johnson addressed the assembled audience to report that this Diocesan Synod would be his last as a Diocesan Bishop since he is retiring as of the end of December 2018. Bishop Johnson offered the assembly a recap of his time serving in the Diocesan Office as well as being the Bishop of Toronto, highlighting some of the changes he has witnessed in the Diocese and the missional work within the Diocese and the effects on our lives. Then the Coadjutor Bishop, Bishop Andrew Asbil, offered his comments about the how grateful he was to have been elected in the June Synod to replace Bishop Johnson in January 2019. He acknowledged that currently he is “in-training” but he definitely is very energised and inspired to proceed with the work of the Diocese of Toronto.

In summation the two days offered a brief glimpse into the workings of the Diocese of Toronto and allowed me to reconnect with a few of my Anglican friends that have moved to other parishes.
