Service of Morning Prayer with Hymns
while a cleric is on Mini-Sabbatical/Sabbath Leave

Opening: Hymn #2 “When Morning Gilds the Skies”

Text from Katolisches Gesangbuch; translation by Edward Caswall

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 When morning gilds the skies, my heart, awaking, cries:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!”
 Alike at work and prayer
 to Jesus I repair:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!” | 4 To God, the Word, on high the hosts of angels cry:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!”
 Let mortals, too, upraise their voice in hymns of praise:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!” |
| 2 When'er the sweet church bell peals over hill and dell,
 may Jesus Christ be praised!
 O hark to what it sings,
 as joyously it rings:
 may Jesus Christ be praised! | 5 Let earth's wide circle round in joyful notes resound:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!”
 Let air and sea and sky
 from depth to height reply:
 “May Jesus Christ be praised!” |
| 3 In heaven's eternal bliss
 the loveliest strain is this:
 may Jesus Christ be praised!
 The power of darkness fear when this sweet chant they hear:
 may Jesus Christ be praised! | 6 Be this, while life is mine,
 my canticle divine:
 may Jesus Christ be praised!
 Be this the eternal song through all the ages on:
 may Jesus Christ be praised! |

The Versicles

Officiant: Lord, open our lips;

All:* And our mouths shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant: O God, make speed to save us;

All:* O Lord, make haste to help us.

All:* Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Officiant: The Lord is our refuge and strength:

All:* O come, let us worship.

Jubilate: Hymn #349 "All People That on Earth Do Dwell"

Psalm 100; paraphrase attributed to William Kethe

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell;
come ye before him and rejoice. 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed;
without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take. | 3 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do. 4 For why, the Lord our God is good;
his mercy is forever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure. |
|--|---|

Officiant: The Lord is our refuge and strength:

All: O come, let us worship.

Psalm 8: 5-6

What are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.

Proclamation of the Word

Reader: A reading from the book of Genesis.

Genesis 1:26 - 2:3

Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.' So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

All: Thanks be to God.

Hymn "I Joyed When to the House of God"

Psalm 122; paraphrase from Scottish Psalter, 1650

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I joyed when to the house of God
"Go up," they said to me.
Jerusalem, within thy gates our feet shall standing be. 2 Jerusalem our city is firm built and strongly stands;
unto that place the tribes go up, pilgrims from all her lands. 3 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicity:
let them that love thee and thy peace have still prosperity. | 4 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain, and ever may thy palaces prosperity retain. 5 Now for my friends' and kindred's sakes
"Peace be in thee," I'll say;
and for the house of God our Lord
I'll seek thy good alway. |
|--|--|

Reader: A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

Phil.4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

AllGlory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.' But he answered them, 'You give them something to eat.' They said to him, 'Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?' And he said to them, 'How many loaves have you? Go and see.' When they had found out, they said, 'Five, and two fish.' Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand.

Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. After saying farewell to them, he went up on the mountain to pray.

The Apostle's Creed

Officiant: I believe in God,

All: the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Leader: Gracious God, we give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy throughout our lives and we bring our prayers of thanksgiving to you as we say, "May your loving Spirit recreate us".

With thanksgiving for the world, whose splendour of beauty we discover anew, and in whose abundance we delight. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: We give thanks for all we have been given to sustain us with our daily needs. We are grateful for agencies and individuals who provide food, shelter, and safety to those in need. We pray we may be ready to answer the call to participate in efforts to help those who suffer. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: We give thanks for the blessings of rest and refreshment; we pray especially at this time for our priest Rev. Leonard Leader, who is on a time of Sabbath. May it be for Rev. Leonard an opportunity for renewal and restoration of mind, body and spirit, so that he may return to us refreshed for gospel ministry in our congregation and in the wider community. So too may we be inspired to reinvigorate our common ministry together as Christ's Church in the world. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: We pray for the leaders of the nations; for Elizabeth our Queen and those who serve our country in Parliament; may they all be deeply aware of their responsibilities of compassion and mercy in their service to others. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: For Linda, Primate of Canada, for Anne, Metropolitan of Ontario, and for Andrew, Riscylla and Kevin, Bishops of our diocese; Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Officiant: In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the people and leaders of the Diocese of The Episcopal / Anglican Province of Alexandria, and in our own Diocese we pray for Bishop Riscylla Shaw. In our Deanery we pray for the people and leaders of St. George on Yonge.
In the Outreach prayer cycle we Pray for St. Michael and All Angels, its Beeton Cupboard foodbank and Sunday hot lunch program; for St. Michael the Archangel, its support of community Out of the Cold and food bank programs, sponsorship of a child in Haiti, and fundraising for the AIDS Committee of Simcoe County; and for St. Monica, and its food bank and neighbourhood advocacy.

Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: We pray for these members of our congregation: Hope L / Margie, Colette, Clavel and Carter L / Folasade M / and Wesley S, Aili M, and Andreas and Ella B and Samantha V. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: We remember those who are sick or in any other need, and for those who care for them; and we pray in thanksgiving for the lives of those who have died. Let us pray,

All: May your loving Spirit recreate us.

Leader: Gracious God, may we feel the cleansing and renewing winds of your Spirit. Together through faith, we find our way, having Christ-like love to challenge, to guide and to inspire, now and always.

All: Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Officiant: Almighty God,
 we are taught by your word that all our doings without love are worth nothing.
 Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
 the true bond of peace and of all virtue;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.

All:* Amen.

The Collect for a Sabbath Leave / Mini-Sabbatical

Officiant: Loving God of creation, the seventh day was made for our rest. Grant that we may appreciate and enjoy the blessings of sabbath, and may continue to be refreshed by your abiding covenant love; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All:* Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

All:* Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread; forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord.

All:* Thanks be to God.

Officiant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore.

All:* Amen.

Closing Hymn: #330 "O Praise Ye the Lord"

Psalm 150; paraphrase by Henry William Baker

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 O praise ye the Lord! Give praise in the height; rejoice in God's Word, ye angels of light;
ye heavens, adore him by whom ye were made, and worship before him in brightness arrayed. 2 O praise ye the Lord! Give praise upon earth, in tuneful accord, give thanks for new birth;
praise God who hath brought you all grace from above,
praise God who hath taught you the pathways of love. | 3 O praise ye the Lord, all things that give sound;
each jubilant chord re-echo around;
loud organs, God's glory proclaim in deep tone, and sweet harp, the story of what God hath done. 4 O praise ye the Lord! Thanksgiving and song be ever outpoured all ages along;
for love in creation, for heaven restored,
for grace of salvation, O praise ye the Lord! |

Territorial Acknowledgement

The land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee (ho-den-oh-show-nee) and Anishinabek (ah-nish-nah-bek) Nations, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory was the subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy and the Ojibwe and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. This territory is also covered by the Toronto Purchase. Today, Toronto is home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island.

We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples connected to and on this land. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in this community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.

COVID instructions

For the time being, the parish leadership has decided to continue contact tracing, and ask that we continue wearing masks for the safety of others.

Please follow the instructions for the service; and be respectful of everyone's comfort level with physical distancing and contact.

Thank you for joining us. Stay Safe
