Processional Hymn #349 "All People That on Earth Do Dwell"

Psalm 100; paraphrase attributed to William Kethe

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
| 1 | All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell;
come ye before him and rejoice. | 3 | O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do. |
| 2 | Know that the Lord is God indeed; without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take. | 4 | For why, the Lord our God is good;
his mercy is forever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure. |

The wreath is laid at the Altar.

Hymn #659, verse 1 "O Canada"

Text by Robert Stanley Weir

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
the true north, strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Micah 4:1–5

Reader A reading from the Book of Micah.

¹ In days to come

the mountain of the Lord's house
shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills.

Peoples shall stream to it,

² and many nations shall come and say:

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths."

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

³ He shall judge between many peoples,
and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away;

they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,
 and their spears into pruning-hooks;
 nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
 neither shall they learn war any more;
⁴ but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees,
 and no one shall make them afraid;
 for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken.

⁵ For all the peoples walk,
 each in the name of its god,
 but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God
 for ever and ever.

Psalm 127

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Unless the Lord builds the house, their labour is in vain who build it. | 4 Children are a heritage from the Lord,
 and the fruit of the womb is a gift. |
| 2 Unless the Lord watches over the city, in vain the watchman keeps his vigil. | 5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior
are the children of one's youth. |
| 3 It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late;
vain, too, to eat the bread of toil,
for he gives to his beloved sleep. | 6 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them!
he shall not be put to shame
when he contends with his enemies in the gate. |

Gracious Father, watch over the Church, built on the foundation of your love. Help us so to live and proclaim the gospel that many may find life in your son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Holy Gospel:

Mark 12:38-44

Subdeacon The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Subdeacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

³⁸ As he taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces,³⁹ and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! ⁴⁰ They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

⁴¹ He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums.⁴² A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny.⁴³ Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury.⁴⁴ For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Subdeacon The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembrance Day Reflection

A time for silence is kept.

The Apostles' Creed

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Leader God of mercy,
People grant us peace.

Confession and Absolution

page 191

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant Most merciful God,

People we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

Offertory Hymn #575 – Let streams of living justice

1 Let streams of living justice flow down upon the earth;
 give freedom's light to captives,
 let all the poor have worth.
 The hungry's hands are pleading,
 the workers claim their rights,
 the mourners long for laughter,
 the blinded seek for sight.
 Make liberty a beacon,
 strike down the iron power;
 abolish ancient vengeance:
 proclaim your people's hour.

2 For healing of the nations,
 for peace that will not end,
 for love that makes us lovers,
 God grant us grace to mend.
 Weave our varied gifts together;
 knit our lives as they are spun;
 on your loom of time enroll us
 till our thread of life is run.
 O great Weaver of our fabric,
 bind church and world in one;
 dye our texture with your radiance,
 light our colours with your sun.

3 Your city's built to music;
 we are the stones you seek;
 your harmony is language:
 we are the words you speak.
 Our faith we find in service,
 our hope in other's dreams,
 our love in hand of neighbour:
 our homeland brightly gleams.
 Inscribe our hearts with justice;
 your way—the path untried;
 your truth—the heart of stranger;
 your life—the Crucified.

The Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Let us pray.

People Gracious God, your word to us is food indeed. Receive all we offer you this day and let your loving-kindness be our comfort, for the sake of Jesus Christ, your living word. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; you are the source of light and life for all your creation, you made us in your own image, and call us to new life in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices to proclaim the glory of your name. AMEN

People Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say:

People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

People I worship and adore you, Lord Jesus Christ, present in the holy sacrament and in your people, who are gathered in spirit. In this moment, I join with them to receive you in my heart, and in our community. May you, enthroned on the altar, be now enthroned in my heart; may you, present in bread and wine, feed and renew my soul; may you, who give yourself to us again, fill us with grace, and heavenly blessing. Even as I am fed, may my hunger for your reign of justice and peace increase, that I may, with your Spirit, work for that day when your reign shall come on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

Recessional Hymn #276 “For All the Saints” Text by William Walsham How

- 1 For all the saints who from their labours rest,
 who thee by faith before the world
 confessed,
 thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
 thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
 thou, in the darkness drear, their one true
 light.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 3 O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
 fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
 and win with them the victor’s crown of gold.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
 soon, soon to faithful warriors comes
 their rest;
 sweet is the calm of paradise the
 blest.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 8 From earth’s wide bounds, from
 ocean’s farthest coast,
 through gates of pearl, streams in the countless host,
 and singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

Territorial Acknowledgement

The land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee (ho-den-oh-show-nee) and Anishinabek (ah-nish-nah-bek) Nations, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory was the subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy and the Ojibwe and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. This territory is also covered by the Toronto Purchase. Today, Toronto is home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island.

We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples connected to and on this land. We are grateful for the opportunity to gather on this territory and work in this community, and we commit ourselves to the work of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples.
